AGENDA

MEDICARE ASSISTANCE

LIBERTY - On Thurs, October 2, a service regarding Medicare eligibility and benefits comes to the Liberty Municipal Library. Zelda Earvin, a benefits counselor with the Houston-Galveston Area Council (H-GAC) Area Agency on Aging, will be at the library from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. and 1-3 p.m. She will explain the difference between traditional Medicare and Medicare Advantage Plans (Medicare Part C), and provide information Part D prescription plans available to beneficiaries. The service is offered at no cost to area seniors. The Liberty Municipal Library is located at 1710 Sam Houston Street. Call the library at 936-336-8901 for more information.

CHURCH ANNIVERSARY

HULL - On Sunday, October 5, at 10 a.m., Mt. Calvary Baptist Church-Marysee will celebrate Homecoming in honor of its 133rd Anniversary. A special time will honor Pete Gunter's years of service at Mt. Calvary. He has served as a long-time deacon, member and educator/coach. Community members are welcome to share in this tribute to a special man. Randy and Jen Gunter will lead the music worship and Pastor Tim de la Houssaye will preach. Morning services will be followed by a potluck lunch. The church is located at 2988 Hwy. 105 East, three miles from the Moss Hill intersection. For more information, call 936-346-6244.

DVFD BLOOD DRIVE

DAYTON - Dayton VFD is sponsoring a blood drive Sat., October 18, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. The MD Anderson Cancer Center mobile collection bus will be on-site at The Crossroads Plaza during the Farmer's Market at 111 N. Church. An appreciation t-shirt, car sunshade, snacks and refreshments will be provided to all blood donors. Photo ID is required. Schedule your appointment at tinyurl.com/dvfd1025.

LIBERTY COUNTY PRAYER MARCH

1st Saturday in October 12:00 Noon

VARA FAYE MARTIN DANIEL PAVILLION 1829 Sam Houston St.

Sixth Annual Prayer Rally begins at noon Saturday, downtown Liberty

LIBERTY - The Sixth Annual Prayer Rally, formerly a march, is set for Sat., October 4, at noon and will take place in downtown Liberty at the Vara Faye Daniel Pavilion on Sam Houston Street. Though it will look a little different, it will include just as much worship this year as in years past.

The prayer focus remains the same: 2 Chronicles 7:14, "If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray. Seek my face, turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven. I will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land."

Multiple pastors from various denominations will be speaking, sharing scripture and words to live by. The program will be heavily centered on a Gospel presentation with praise and worship, including music, and possibly an altar call.

The event will once again feature music from Karla Burris and Appointed by Grace, as well as music by the Liberty High School choir and other talents.

The entire community is welcome to come out and be a part of the event this year, so bring your lawn chairs and blankets, make yourself comfortable and enjoy the fellowship, worship, and singing that will take place. Local youth are especially encouraged to attend as there will be a youth program during the event. Churches across the county are urged to inform their congregations about the event.

Those who have signs from previous years are asked to display them to share the event or stop by 1939 Trinity Street and pick up a sign.

The event is not political, and organizers ask that attendees refrain from wearing political attire.

It's time for Bridgehaven's Macho Bingo!

DAYTON - Bridgehaven Children's Advocacy Center is thrilled to announce that Macho Bingo 2025 is officially on the calendar for October 4 at the Dayton Community Center.

Sponsorship opportunities are now open and you can show your support in a big way with any of the multiple sponsorship opportunities available. By sponsoring this event, your business will receive valuable recognition, all while supporting a cause that matters.

It's going to be an unforgettable Western-themed night full of games, auction items, good food, and big laughs, all in support of Bridgehaven Children's Advocacy Center and the children that are served across Liberty and Chambers counties. Every dollar raised at Macho Bingo helps continue the mission to bring hope, healing, and justice to children who are victims of abuse.

Saddle up, win big, give big and play bingo for the night. Game prizes will consist of items such as fishing rods, hunting trips, fishing trips, coolers of booze, hunting and fishing supplies, and more. To add to an already fun night, come dressed to impress in your western wear (encouraged, but not required). This event is for 18 and older only. No one under 21 will be allowed to consume alcohol. Doors open at 5 p.m. Bingo starts at 6 p.m. There will be dinner and drinks fit for your inner cowboy/cowgirl, auctions, card game, poker chip game, black-out game, and bingo (of course).

Make a lasting impact in our community with your support by becoming a sponsor today, but hurry before spots are gone. Go online to <https://givebut-ter.com/macho25> to find out more and show your support.

GOOD NEWS OF THE DAY!

Students of Hull-Daisetta High School collected funds to allow CPS to purchase new items for the Rainbow Room. Rainbow Room is a resource room available to CPS staff so they can provide essential emergency items for the abused and neglected children in our county. Thank you so much, H-D students, for your generosity and community spirit. Back row l-r: students Jack Smith, Darrian Jordan, Mia Whitehead, and Jenna Fregia; front l-r: Jennifer Regen, CPS board member; Sherry Goodman, Hull-Daisetta staff; Cyndie Abshire, CPS board president, Tonya Warner, Hull-Daisetta staff; Nikki Taylor, CPS board member.
