

HISTORY & FOLKLORE

From Illustrated Press of Liberty County, Thursday, August 22, 1963 –

Johnnie Eugene Ellard Jr. and his grandfather George C. Calhoun have a sizeable operation under way in Dayton. Their cages hold some 500 rabbits, growing to market weight under the Purina program.

From Illustrated Press of Liberty County, Thursday, August 15, 1963 –

Joe Sefcik Jr., Eastgate cotton farmer, was pictured by W.R. Johnson's camera as he worked hard in his fields this week. Pickers are at work all over the general countryside as farmers handpick the large early bolls of fluff. The 80-acre Sefcik farm has been in constant tillage since 1912. Farmer Sefcik judges that he has about four bales of cotton open for picking at the moment. He also keeps about 14 beehives on the farm.
