

HISTORY & FOLKLORE

From Illustrated Press of Liberty County, Thursday, March 26, 1970 –
Landing runway is being paved at Liberty’s Municipal Airport. This is a great step forward for any community that considers itself a budding city. The machinery can be seen in the background.

From Illustrated Press of Liberty County, Thursday, August 16, 1962 –

The Life and Times of
Linnie Evelyn Stephenson-Standley in Smith Point, Texas

A beautifully produced, spiral bound book chronicling the life of Smith Point's oldest living resident, Linnie Evelyn Stephenson-Standley, who turned 100 in 2022, is now available from the Chambers County Museum at Wallisville. Evelyn's voracity for life and willingness to work hard led her to many adventures which are recounted in the book along with some history of the Smith Point area, pictures and stories of a host of family and friends whose lives she impacted. Please call the museum at 409-389-2252 in advance to retain a copy. The cost is $20.
