

LIBERTY - The Spirit of Sharing Thrift Store/Pantry is located at 2521 Beaumont Avenue. Spirit of Sharing (SOS) is a community-based organization that focuses on helping individuals with basic needs. Improvements have been made to the thrift store to add to your shopping experience where you'll find clothing, home goods, furniture and more. Pantry items are also available to those who qualify.

Have you ever wondered how you can support the work that SOS does? There are several meaningful ways you can make a difference.

• Donations of furniture, clothing, appliances, tools and home goods are always welcome.

• Financial contributions help SOS continue serving the community.

• Community service opportunities include fulfilling service hours or simply giving back to the community.

The assistance offered by SOS includes food, clothing, and monetary help with medicine, propane, and utilities. Clients requesting assistance are screened/vetted to determine their eligibility and needs; eligibility is based on residency in the service area, income guidelines, and documentation of recognizable crises.

If you'd like to find out more, contact Spirit of Sharing at 936-336-6602 or spiritoresharing6602@gmail.com.

April, May meetings of Lambda Alpha Sigma members documented

April Meeting

DAYTON - Twelve members of Lambda Alpha Sigma met at 6 p.m., April 14, in the home of Mary Ellen Conner. President Shirley Sisk presided and led members in the reading of the Club Collect and in the pledges to the American and Texas flags. The minutes of the March meeting were read and approved. The treasurer's report was filed as given.

Members were reminded that the club dues are to be brought to the May meeting. Also, at that time, donations will be accepted for the library's annual Summer Reading Program.

With business concluded, President Sisk introduced the ever-popular "Show and Tell" program, where every member shares and/or shows something. There were stories of long-ago events, like the childhood memory of the family house burning down, and a connection to a story recorded in the book, Historic Murders of East Texas, by Bob and Doris Bowman.

There was an update on a grandchild's health and more recent stories of members' experiences. One talked about ancestry research and a book written as a result. Another told of her travels to England and her collection of tea towels. One shared an old newspaper article about her dad and "cotton chopper" tractor.

Items brought to share included school yearbooks, an old canning tool, a 1959 graduation dress, a "Jerusalem Cross" obtained from a pilgrimage to Israel, and a "Crazy Quilt" created with pieces of a member's dresses and sewn together by her great-grandmother.

After the program, members enjoyed refreshments prepared by hostesses Mary Ellen Conner and Shirley Sisk.

May Meeting

Members of Lambda Alpha Sigma met at 6 p.m. on May 12, in the Dayton Public Library.

President Shirley Sisk presided and led members in the reading of the Club Collect and in the pledges to the American and Texas flags. Twelve members answered roll call. The minutes of the April club meeting were read and approved by Secretary Sherry Sikes. The treasurer's report was filed as given by Treasurer Lois St. Pé. Club dues were collected and donations were made to the library for the Summer Reading Program.

Program Chairman Carolyn Parsons introduced Dayton First Baptist Church pastor, Brother Colin Errington. With a heart for missions, he has been on 27 mission trips in the past 18 years, helped to start churches and children's ministries.

During his four years as FBC pastor, he has involved church members in mission trips, as well. He shared some personal experiences from his past trips and pointed out that through mission trips to share the Gospel in other countries, a person will realize that God is a global God. Volunteers are strengthened as they learn to pray and their perspective of wealth and needs can be changed, too.

To show the club's appreciation for the program, the books, Lottie Moon: The Girl Who Reached the World, by Amy Whitfield and Around the World with 80 Missionaries by Linda Finlayson, will be put in the Jones Public Library in Bro-Errington's honor.

Afterward, members enjoyed refreshments provided by hostesses Ellen Conner, Janette Frick, and Shirley Sisk.

Still time to donate books for vets, military

LIBERTY - The Sam Houston Regional Library and Research Center (SHC), as part of its Texas America250 programming, will be hosting a book drive through July 4 in support of our military and veterans. The SHC Quarterly Book Club has partnered with Operation Paperback to support active-duty military, veterans and their families with books donated through the club. Club members invite the community to bring book donations to the Sam Houston Regional Library and Research Center at 650 FM 1011 during regular business hours Tuesday to Friday, 8 a.m.-5 p.m. and Saturday, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

Books must be new or gently used, without writing or damage, and can be either paperback or hardback. To ensure books are in like-new condition, publication dates within the past 5-7 years are preferred. Popular categories include mysteries, action novels, westerns, fantasy and science fiction, but all genres are welcome. Military and veterans also request non-fiction genres, like history, current events and business and investing books.

Club members and Center staff plan to deliver books to the Veteran Affairs Medical Center in Houston for use in clinics throughout Southeast Texas and to ship books through Operation Paperback. By working with Operation Paperback, the club can send books where they will be of most benefit, which may be to troops overseas, wounded warrior programs, military families or hospitals.
