

Jimmy Williamson, original proprietor of Dayton Electric, now retired, was sharing the history of a blue F250 work truck he purchased in the early 1980s. Jimmy has re-acquired this incredibly tough truck recently and has plans to do a restoration on it. Although the vehicle has hundreds of thousands of miles on it, the engine took a lickin' and has kept on tickin'. The body of this old Ford is a little rough, but nothing that Jimmy can't handle. Future plans include displaying the truck at Dayton Electric. At left is Cliff Lee.

Festus and Miss K have enjoyed a busy year after partnering up with Eric and Kinsey Windham to form Dayton Plumbing.

Realtor Tina Fregia stopped by to hang out at the Dayton Plumbing first anniversary party last week. If you look closely at the photo, you can see Office Kitty Gizmo lounging in her safe space.
