

Sgt. Jason Rice of the Liberty PD delved right in to the hard work of toting tubs of dirty dishes to the kitchen at the Shop with a Cop fundraiser at El Burrito last week.

Deputy Noe Chavez of the Liberty County Sheriff's Office was making sure to stay hydrated in the crowded restaurant at the Shop with a Cop fundraiser.

Master Naturalist training class coming up Sept. 2

If you enjoy the outdoors, want to learn more about Texas' incredible ecosystems, and are looking for a meaningful way to give back to the community, why not explore the Texas Master Naturalist Program?

The Lower Trinity Basin Chapter is currently accepting applications for its next training class, which starts September 2.

The Texas Master Naturalist Program is sponsored by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service. Its mission is to train volunteers who are passionate about conserving Texas's natural resources through education, outreach, and community service. Participants complete classroom and field training, volunteer service, and advanced education while learning from engaging experts.

If you are interested in learning more, visit the website txmn.org/lowertrinitybasin or email lowertrinitybasin@gmail.com.

Raising Awesome Awareness invites all

Raising Awesome Awareness, Inc. is a local 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization serving individuals with disabilities and their families throughout Southeast Texas with a mission to create inclusive opportunities through community events, educational resources, social activities, and family support while promoting acceptance and awareness for people of all abilities.

Everyone is welcome. Whether you're an individual with a disability, family member, caregiver, volunteer, community partner, or local business, we'd love for you to become part of our growing community.

To find out more, visit the Facebook page: Raising Awesome Awareness, Inc. or email raisingawesomeawareness@gmail.com. Building inclusion, inspiring acceptance, empowering families together can make a difference.
