Charles and Jo Ann Wiggins were joined at their home in Liberty by friends and family recently to celebrate their 70th wedding anniversary. Above, we see them on their wedding day August 29, 1956, in an Episcopal church in Houston before attending a reception at a couple's house who were friends of the family. We were told that Jo Ann's graceful pose is largely due to her dancing training in earlier years.

At right, Charles and Jo Ann are still looking great at the gathering of family and friends, Sept. 4.

Fun fact: Their younger son Karl tells us that their birthdays are only two days apart. Charles' birthday is Jan. 2, 1934 (1/2/34) and Jo Ann's is Jan. 4, 1936, which makes Charles now 92 with Jo Ann at 90.

Cowboy historian coming to SHC

LIBERTY - The Sam Houston Regional Library and Research Center (SHC), part of the Texas State Library and Archives Commission (TSLAC), invites the community to get ready for the Trinity Valley Exposition (TVE) Fair and Rodeo by celebrating a Texas tradition, the cowboy, with real-life cowboy, author and historian J.L. "Jim" Hodges at 7 p.m. on Thurs., Sept. 24. As part of the event, Center staff will offer a special viewing of historic images, records and artifacts related to Gulf Coast cowboys.

Hodges' program on "The Great American Cowboy: From Egypt to the Present" will explore the ancient roots of cowboys and their early days in the Gulf Coast region, along with sharing his personal experiences as a Texas ranch hand and horse trainer. Cattle ranching has been a vital part of the Texas economy since the early 18th century, but few know about its storied past in deep Southeast Texas.

Jim Hodges was a horse trainer and open-range cowboy by age 11. A Vietnam veteran and former law enforcement officer, he also owned his own livestock business and performed with his horses for people from every corner of the globe. Hodges co-curated the Bryan Museum's Coastal Cowboys exhibit and is the author of multiple books. After the program, there will be a book signing for those interested in purchasing copies.

This event is part of SHC's commemoration of America's 250th anniversary in 2026. Projects and events throughout the year recognize the region and state's contributions to the national story. The program is free and open to the public. No registration required. Contact the Center at (936) 336-8821 or samhoustoncenter@tsl.texas.gov for more information.
