Liberty library hosting second annual Tree Decorating Event

LIBERTY - The Liberty Municipal Library once again invites families, businesses, and organizations to express their holiday spirit by participating in the Liberty Municipal Library Tree Decorating Event. Tree setup continues through December 1, at 4:45 p.m.

Participants must provide their own trees and are encouraged to decorate them in their unique, family-friendly, holiday style. Trees cannot be taller than 7' with a maximum width of 50", must be self-supporting with a tree stand, and include a sign identifying the creator.

Last year's event brought in so much winter fun and color to the library that the staff is hopeful for many more unique entries this year. A winner will be chosen by patron votes online and in person starting parade night. The winner will be announced in local newspapers and online at the library's Facebook page, www.facebook.com/LibertyMunicipalLibrary/.

The Liberty Municipal Library is located inside the Geraldine D. Humphreys Cultural Center at 1710 Sam Houston in Liberty, across the street from Immaculate Conception Catholic Church. Library hours are Monday through Thursday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Friday 1 to 5 p.m., and Saturday 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. For more information, contact the library at 936-336-8901.

OLD SCHOOL MUG SHOT
Dr. Travis Young, superintendent of Dayton ISD, would like to remind everyone that The Old School Museum, located at 111 W. Houston Street in Dayton, is open to the public free of charge every Saturday from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. Along with several new exhibits is a special exhibit featuring 16 businesses that were located in the city in 1920. They were represented by clever advertising jingles in The Daytonite newspaper at the time.
